Left Philadelphia about 11 o'clock to make a tour through the Southern States.81--Reached Chester about 3 o'clock--dined & lodged at Mr. Wythes--Roads exceedingly deep, heavy & cut in places by the Carriages which used them. In this tour I was accompanied by Majr. Jackson,--my equipage & attendance consisted of a Charriot & four horses drove in hand--a light baggage Waggon & two horses--four saddle horses besides a led one for myself-- and five--to wit--my Valet de Chambre, two footmen, Coachman & postilion. Tuesday, 22d. At half past 6 o'clock we left Chester, & breakfasted at Wilmington.--Finding the Roads very heavy--and receiving unfavourable Accts. of those between this place and Baltimore, I determined to cross the Bay by the way of Rockhall--and crossing Christiana Creek proceeded through Newcastle & by the Red Lyon to the Buck tavern 13 miles M He and his family left his residence in Market-street, Philadelphia, in his English coach, at twelve o'clock this day. They were accompanied as far as Delaware by Mr. Jefferson and General Knox, two of the heads of departments. Also by Major Jackson, his aid, who accompanied him in his entire journey through the Southern States. from Newcastle and 19 from Wilmington where we dined and lodged.--At the Red Lyon we gave the horses a bite of Hay--during their eating of which I discovered that one of those wch. drew the Baggage waggon was lame and aprd. otherwise much indisposed--had him bled and afterwards led to the Buck-tavern. This is a better house than the appearances indicate. Wednesday, 23d. Set off at 6 o'clock--breakfasted at Warwick--bated with hay 9 miles farther--and dined and lodged at the House of one Worrells in Chester; from whence--I...
